Itinerary

Day 01 (Saturday) Seoul - Gongju - Jeonju (Lunch)
Tourist Spot: Gongsanseong Fortress → Tomb of King Muryeong → Gongju National Museum

We begin our day by traveling to Gongju, where our first stop is Gongsanseong Fortress, designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2015. This historic hillside fortress offers a vivid glimpse into the Baekje Kingdom, allowing you to truly feel the presence of ancient Korea.

Next, we visit the Royal Tomb of King Muryeong, renowned for its unique brick-built burial style. The site showcases outstanding artifacts that highlight the craftsmanship, artistry, and royal burial practices of the Baekje era.

Our final stop in Gongju is the Gongju National Museum, which houses around 10,000 cultural artifacts. From royal relics to gilt-bronze ornaments and artifacts unearthed from King Muryeong's tomb, you'll gain a deeper understanding of the elegance and legacy of the Baekje Kingdom.
After completing today's itinerary, we will transfer to our hotel in Jeonju, where you can enjoy a relaxing evening and rest comfortably.

Overnight: in Jeonju.
Meal Included: Lunch at a local restaurant.
Accommodation: 4, 5 stars hotels (Lahan Hotel Jeonju) as mentioned or similar.

Day 02 (Sunday): Jeonju - Jangseong - Gwangju (Breakfast / Dinner)
Tourist Spot: Jeonju Hanok Village → Baekyangsa Temple

A Full Day of Korean Traditions — Hanbok Experience, Tea with a Monk!

After a restful night in Jeonju Hanok Village, our day begins at Gyeonggijeon Shrine, located in the heart of the village. Home to more than 800 traditional Korean hanok houses, this area is beloved for its calm, timeless atmosphere—so different from the modern cityscape. Wander through the beautiful alleys and enjoy a Hanbok experience, creating unforgettable memories in one of Korea's most picturesque settings.

We then travel to Baekyangsa Temple, a place that offers a different kind of beauty with each season. Here, you will join a tea conversation with a Buddhist monk, a peaceful experience that encourages reflection and offers meaningful insight into Korean Buddhism. Preparing a few questions in advance will make this session even more enriching.

Afterward, we head to Gwangju for dinner and conclude the day with a comfortable rest at the hotel.

Overnight: in Gwangju.
Meal Included: Breakfast at hotel. Dinner at a local restaurant.
Accommodation: 4, 5 stars hotels (Holiday Inn Gwangju) as mentioned or similar.

Day 03 (Monday): Gwangju - Boseong - Suncheon - Busan (Breakfast / Lunch)
Tourist Spot: Boseong Green Tea Plantation → Suncheon Bay Wetland

A Special Day of Wellness – Plus a Taste of Boseong's Signature Treat!

Today, we visit Boseong Green Tea Plantation(Daehan Dawon), the largest green tea field in Korea. As you walk between the beautiful terraced rows of vibrant tea bushes, you'll enjoy scenic views that change with every season. Take a moment to savor a green tea ice cream amid nature and experience the refreshing flavor of authentic Korean green tea. (One per person is included.)

After lunch, we continue to the Suncheon bay Wetland Reserve. Located where the river meets the sea, this vast coastal marshland is one of the world's top five wetlands and a sanctuary for more than 250 species of migratory birds and wildlife. Stroll along the broad ecological pathways winding through the reeds and mudflats-an immersive wellness experience unique to Suncheonman.

*The Suncheon Bay Wetland Reserve is closed on the last Monday of each month. On those days, the alternative visit will be to Nagan Eupseong Folk Village.

Following the day's activities, we'll transfer to Busan, where you'll enjoy a relaxing stay at a hotel near Haeundae Beach.

Overnight: in Busan.
Meal Included: Breakfast at hotel. Lunch at a local restaurant.
Accommodation: 4, 5 stars hotels (Busan Grand Josun hotel) as mentioned or similar.

Day 04 (Tuesday): Busan (Breakfast)
Tourist Spot: UN Memorial Cemetery – Jagalchi Market – Songdo Sea Cable Car

Discover the Charm of Busan, Korea's Second-Largest City!

We begin our day with a visit to the UN Memorial Cemetery in Busan, a solemn site dedicated to the UN soldiers who lost their lives during the Korean War. Approximately 2,300 graves are arranged by nation, offering a quiet space to reflect on the history and sacrifices commemorated here.

Next, we explore Jagalchi Market, Busan's most iconic fish market. Lined with stalls selling fresh seafood and local specialties, this lively market offers an authentic glimpse into daily life in Busan. Take your time wandering through the alleys and soaking in its energetic, unmistakably local atmosphere.

Our final highlight of the day is a ride on the Songdo Sea Cable Car, which stretches about 1.6 km from Songdo Beach Station to Songdo Sky Park. As you glide across the coastline, you'll enjoy sweeping views of Songdo Beach, Namhang Bridge, and the surrounding seascape.

After the tour, your guide will accompany you to your hotel in Busan for check-in. You'll then have free time to relax and enjoy the beautiful Haeundae Beach.

* Please note: Due to weather conditions or regular maintenance, the Songdo Sea Cable Car may be replaced with a visit to Busan Tower Yongdusan Observatory.

Overnight: in Busan.

Day 05 (Wednesday): Busan - Gyeongju (Breakfast / Lunch)
Tourist Spot: Nurimaru APEC House → Bulguksa Temple → Daereungwon Ancient Tomb Complex → Gyeongju National Museum → Cheomseongdae Observatory

A Journey Through a Thousand Years of History in Gyeongju!

We begin the morning with a visit to Dongbaekseom Island, where we explore the Nurimaru APEC House, the venue of the 2005 APEC Summit. Step inside the modern, glass-walled conference hall to sense the atmosphere of the historic meeting, and enjoy a leisurely stroll along the coastal trail surrounded by camellia trees and sweeping views of Busan's blue shoreline.

After wrapping up our time in Busan, we head to Gyeongju, Korea's ancient capital for a thousand years and the host city of the 2025 APEC Summit. Our first stop is Bulguksa Temple, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the finest examples of 8th-century Korean Buddhist architecture. As you explore the temple grounds, you'll find traces of Silla's deep spiritual and artistic heritage at every turn.

We then visit the Daereungwon Ancient Tomb Complex, where large royal burial mounds and precious relics-including elaborate gold crowns-offer insight into the grandeur of the Silla royal court.

At the Gyeongju National Museum, you'll encounter iconic artifacts such as golden crowns and masterpieces from a millennium ago, experiencing firsthand the splendor of Silla's history. The museum's gift shop also features unique souvenirs inspired by Silla culture-perfect for remembering your journey.

We conclude the day at Cheomseongdae Observatory, a beloved symbol of Gyeongju. As you stand before this ancient astronomical structure, imagine how the people of Silla once observed the stars and sought wisdom from the sky, bringing a meaningful close to today's historical adventure.

Overnight: in Gyeongju.
Meal Included: Breakfast at hotel. Lunch at a local restaurant.
Accommodation: 4, 5 stars hotels (Gyeongju Lahan hotel) as mentioned or similar.

Day 06 (Thursday): Gyeongju - Daegu - Andong - Pyeongchang (Breakfast / Dinner)
Tourist Spot: Korean Traditional Culture Center (or Donggung Palace and Wolji Pond in Gyeongju if the minimum of 8 participants is not met) → Andong Hahoe Folk Village

A One-of-a-Kind Day of Experiences You Can Enjoy Only with HanaTour ITC!

We start the morning with the highlight of this tour—an immersive Korean traditional dessert-making experience. At the Korean Traditional Culture Center, you'll learn from expert instructors and create delicious Korean sweets-called 'Gangjeong' -using fresh, wholesome ingredients. Enjoy your handmade treats on the spot as a sweet way to begin the day.

*Please note: This program requires a minimum of 8 participants. If the minimum is not met, the experience will be replaced with a visit to Donggung Palace and Wolji Pond in Gyeongju.

Next, we head to Andong Hahoe Folk Village, one of Korea's best-preserved traditional villages and a UNESCO World Heritage Site with more than 600 years of history. The village remains a living cultural landscape, showcasing traditional homes and the daily life of the Joseon-era aristocracy. Here, you can also see the famous Hahoe masks, used in Korea's traditional mask dance known as Hahoe Talchum.

After our time in Andong, we travel to Pyeongchang, where we enjoy dinner and end the day with a comfortable rest at the hotel.

Overnight: in Pyeongchang.
Meal Included: Breakfast at hotel. Dinner at a local restaurant.
Accommodation: 4, 5 stars hotels (Intercontinental Pyeongchang) as mentioned or similar.

Day 07 (Friday): Pyeongchang - Yangyang - Seoul (Breakfast)
Tourist Spot: Jujeongol Valley

A Perfect Finale Amid the Scenic Beauty of Seoraksan!

After greeting the morning in Pyeongchang, we make our way to Jujeongol Valley in Seoraksan National Park. Known for its dramatic rock formations, soaring peaks, and crystal-clear streams, Seoraksan is one of Korea's most iconic natural treasures. Enjoy a light hike as you breathe in the fresh mountain air and take in the tranquility of the surrounding landscape.

We will return to Seoul and arrive at AMID Hotel in Insadong at around 6:00 PM, where the tour will conclude.

*Please note that the arrival time may vary depending on local conditions.
