Today is dedicated to the discovery of the essentials of Angkor temples. Let's first explore Angkor Wat, easily the most famous and best-preserved of all temples within the Angkor complex. It is a massive three-tiered structure crowned by five lotus-like towers rising 65-metres from ground level. Next, visit the ancient walled city of Angkor Thom, the last capital of the Great Khmer Empire under the reign of Jayavarman VII. Bayon Temple, Baphuon, the royal enclosure, and the Terraces of the Elephants and the Leper King are the main elements of this 12th century masterpiece.

A lunch break is at your own expenses.

We continue to Ta Prohm Temple, which, unlike most of other Angkor temples, has been left just as it was when rediscovered: a photogenic and atmospheric maze of trees growing out of the ruins. Return to the hotel in the late afternoon and enjoy the rest of the day at your own leisure.

Note: Appropriate attire when visiting Angkor temples is long pants (covering the knee) and shirts that cover shoulders. Skirts, small shorts, tank tops, and other items of revealing clothing are not allowed within temple grounds. Visitors can and are frequently turned away from temples when wearing revealing clothing.

Day 03: Visit Kampong Phluk floating village half day (Breakfast)

Today, you will head out to Kampong Phluk "floating village", which is, in fact, a settlement of stilt-houses called home by over 20,000 people. Depending on the season and the water level, structures can tower up to ten meters above the water or be totally immersed and give visitors the impression that houses are actually floating.

Greeted by waves of the friendly locals, here you can glimpse Cambodia's countryside culture and traditional family lifestyle.

Note: From February to August/September the water level of the Tonle Sap Lake is very low. It's muddy and the boat can get stuck. If clients are still keen on having a boat trip on the lake we'll change to Chong Kneas floating village instead of where the condition is a little bit better for the boat trip.
