Day 02: Hanoi, Thanh Lanh Golf & City tour

For golfer: Thanh Lanh Valley Golf & Resort (Breakfast)

After breakfast, transfer with guide and driver to Thanh Lanh Valley Golf & Resort, beautifully set in a peaceful valley beside Thanh Lanh Lake.

Inspired by the charm of a small Austrian village, the golf complex features distinctive European-style architecture, including an impressive clubhouse designed like an ancient castle. Surrounded by natural lakes and located at an elevation of up to approximately 1,000 metres above sea level, the course enjoys a cool and refreshing atmosphere.

During your 18-hole round, discover several memorable features, including the additional lakeside green at Hole 4 and the striking heart-shaped green at Hole 14, which offers both an enjoyable challenge and an excellent photo opportunity.

After your game, transfer back to the hotel and enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure.

For non-golfers: Hanoi, Classics & Off beats (Breakfast / Lunch)

The guide meets you in the hotel lobby at 9 a.m. We head to the southern edge of the ancient citadel (now the headquarters of the Ministry of Defense), where our walk begins. We first cross a lively street where, every morning, merchants display an impressive array of vegetables and fruits for sale. We continue walking and enter Hanoi's unique "food street," the only place in town where food shops are allowed to stay open 24/7. Our journey then takes us along the railway to view the impressive scenes of life by the tracks before ending at the Temple of Literature. After visiting this architectural masterpiece, we enjoy a typical Hanoian lunch: bun cha on the sidewalk. Bun cha is a specialty of Hanoi, featuring flavorful minced pork, flame-grilled and served with sticky rice noodles and spring rolls.

In the afternoon, we explore the garden of the Presidential Palace, featuring giant mango trees, the one-pillar pagoda, and the teak house on stilts where Ho Chi Minh spent his last years. We then transfer to the tree and plant street market, located in the northwest of the city. Here, we start a gentle walk along a busy street with sidewalks covered in lush green vegetation. The urban trail takes us off the main avenue along smaller pathways to a very special district. It suddenly feels like stepping back in time to the 1980s, when Hanoi was a quaint capital populated mostly by modest workers. Take some time to enjoy wandering around this fascinating district. The final stop of the day offers a chance to relax at a local café, where you can observe the daily life of the passing locals. We will return to the hotel in the late afternoon.

Here, rugged cliffs curve around clear blue waters, creating a dramatic and unspoiled seascape. Take time to walk along the coast, admire the unusual rock formations and enjoy the fresh sea breeze in this peaceful natural setting.

Later, return to Quy Nhon and stop at the well-known Surf Bar, located directly on the city's long sandy beach.
